Parks and Recreation Halloween Family Events (Updated version)

[Duluth, MN] Parks and Recreation is sponsoring a Halloween Party for young children at the Duluth Heights Community Center located at 33 Mulberry Street on Wednesday, October 31st from 9:00-11:00 AM. A costume show on stage will be followed by a healthy treat and games parents can play with their children. A free-will donation to the weekly Play Gym Program would be greatly appreciated. For more information call 730-4322.

Parks and Recreation also encourages Trick-or-Treating families to stop by the Heritage Sports Center located at 120 West Michigan Street on Wednesday, October 31st Halloween between 5:00-6:00 PM for a treat, games, face painting and a costume parade through the 'slightly haunted' locker room halls. Free public skating will follow from 6:30-8:00 PM, with Halloween music and fun. No costumes on the ice. For more information call 730-4322.
